

A NEW YEAR / A NEW LOOK

We are very pleased and excited to announce that the Board of Education has approved Willingboro High School's new student uniform for the 2017-2018 school year!

Frequently Asked Questions...

Why are we mandating a new uniform?

Less distractions from instruction! Easier and less expensive for parents! Keeps our students safer!
Increases school spirit! College and Career readiness!

What is the new uniform?

Gray Insignia Polo and Navy Blue Bottoms (Slacks, skirts or skorts) daily, except "Shirt and Tie Business Wednesdays" when all students will wear the Chimera-Red and Blue striped tie with a White Insignia Button-down shirt.

Where do we purchase uniforms and how much do they cost?

Our official uniform vendor is Risse Brothers. They are located in Cherry Hill, NJ and have a national footprint. They also have a website with online purchasing at <https://www.rissebrothers.com/index.cfm>. The pricing list is attached and available on both our District website and, of course, the Risse Brothers' site. The cost was negotiated to be very reasonable for our families. For more information please view the attached Risse Brothers welcome letter.

Can I purchase the uniforms any where else?

No, the insignia shirts (Polo and button-down) are exclusive to Risse Brothers and we are mandating 100% compliance for our students, to ensure that this updated policy will be effective and have the positive impact that we all seek for our students.

What if my family has no way to get to the Risse Brothers store in Cherry Hill?

Risse Brothers has online purchasing, with next day delivery on their website. We will also have a few onsite 'Sale Days' where Risse Brothers will bring uniforms to the Country Club Admin Building for families to purchase in-person.

Again this is a 100% Willingboro Board of Education mandate! All students are expected to wear their uniform in compliance with the policy every-day. Our school-based administrators will be directed to strictly enforce this policy without exception.
